Located in the province of Alicante, Monforte del Cid is a great destination if you enjoy playing golf in natural scenery and the warm weather. But it is also the perfect choice if you are keen to visit a small town steeped in history, culture and heritage where you can take a look around fantastic museums.

If you are looking for ways to spend your free time, Monforte del Cid has excellent golf courses as well as magnificent Moors and Christians festivities in December. Before you leave, make sure you try the Designation of Origin Vinalopó grape, anisette and liqueurs, as well as the local pastries, cakes and stews. This is a destination that will steal your heart forever.
